TWENTY-SECOND ANNUAL REPORT of the
Ottawa Women's Canadian Historical Society

It has been said that the "world is a wheel," its revolutions slowly but surely producing in turn different phases of existence for those who dwell upon it. We have the juggernaut of war; are now in the throes of what is called "peace," but which is only its counterfeit. Discontent, jealousy, and suspicion are rampant, not only in the quarters where they might be expected to appear, but among those who fought side by side in the cause of justice and liberty. But we have faith that the next turn of the wheel will bring to the world an abiding peace which shall spread over the nations of the earth changing chaos and darkness into cosmos and light.

Britain as a debtor nation (not on her own account, but for the suffering neighbors) has been placed in an unenviable position; every action is criticized and misunderstood, but she is steadily regaining her former strength, and is rapidly reducing her foreign obligations.

No sympathy should be wasted on Germany in her professed inability to pay. Until she brings up her taxation to the level of those in the Allied countries, she is not in a position to say that she cannot meet her obligations. She has defaulted in respect to other formal provisions of the Treaty, such as delivery of war criminals and disarmament. The indulgence of the Allies has been stretched to the limit. An unrepentant, unconquered Germany must be brought to her knees.

Canada has great reason for thankfulness at the present time; while other nations are battling with plague, confusion, terror, and paralyzed industry, her position is fundamentally sound, her crops the best in years, her bank deposits doubled since 1913, and a great part of her bonded indebtedness held within her borders. But the rate of exchange with United States is still high and will remain so long as our imports exceed greatly our exports. Last year imports from United States were $200,000.00 greater than the previous year. It is therefore the urgent duty of every citizen to discourage imports of non-essentials, by refusing to purchase. The remedy lies in the hands of the people.

Our representatives to the first meeting of the League of Nations, Sir Geo. Foster, Hon. N. Rowell, and Rt. Hon. C. J. Doherty, have upheld with honour and dignity Canada's position, won through costly sacrifice.

We regret exceedingly the departure in the near future of their Excellencies, the Duke and Duchess of Devonshire, who have so ably and graciously filled the high office as representatives of their Majesties. The Duchess honoured this Society by becoming its Patroness. It is hoped that they will carry away pleasant memories of life in Canada.

The Historical Society has completed a most successful year. New interest has been aroused and old stimulated. Two Honorary members, Mr. Justice Latchford, and Mr. Fred Cook and 18 others have been added to the roll.

Seven regular, two special, and ten executive meetings were held during the year. The first special meeting was held in the Bytown Museum on Friday, June 25th from 4 to 6. Each member was asked to bring a friend. The guests were received by Mrs. D. H. Maclean, President; Madame Fauvel, Curator of Museum; and Mrs. E. A. Cruikshank. Mrs. Maclean presented her report as delegate to the Ontario Historical Society which met in Owen Sound. After this report the objects of interest in the museum were examined by the visitors. Tea was served; Mrs. Billings and Mrs. Brown presided at the table.

On Thursday, September 30th, Mrs. S. J. Maclean entertained at a tea and money shower in aid of the up-keep of the museum. Dr. Helen MacMurphy was the speaker and guest of honour. Her address dealt with the historic aspect of child welfare, showing its gradual growth from the time of Queen Victoria to the present day. Tea was served at the close of the address.

The first regular meeting of the Society was held in the Library on October 7th, at 8 o'clock, when Gen. Cruikshank, F.R.S.C., President of Ontario Historical Society, spoke on the study of History. The speaker traced the development of history from the time when man inscribed figures on stone. He said in closing, "History will be authentic only when written by an expert who can ascertain the veracity of his data."

At the November meeting Mr. J. Jones Bell read a paper on the burning of the Parliament Buildings at Montreal in 1840, by a mob incensed by the action of Lord Elgin, Governor General, in giving assent to a bill which refused compensation for losses to rebels of war, 1837. The portrait of Queen Victoria was rescued from the fire on this occasion, and on two succeeding ones, the last being the fire in Parliament Buildings in Ottawa in 1916.

In December Mr. W. J. Lynch, I.S.O., read a paper on Early patents referring more particularly to those of men residing in Ottawa, up to 1872.

At the January meeting Mrs. Billings gave a paper written almost a century ago—author unknown—called "How peace was preserved in days gone by," which paper was presented to the Society by Miss Ida Armstrong, of Perth.

A special evening meeting was held on Friday, February 4th, at 8 o'clock in the Library when Mr. Justice Latchford, Toronto, formerly of Ottawa, delivered an address on "Pioneers of the Ottawa" which gave an account of the settlement of the Township of Hull.

The regular February meeting was in charge of Mrs. Wm. Ogilvie, widow of the late Wm. Ogilvie, first Governor of the Yukon, who in 1887 laid the boundary line between Yukon and Alaska.

Mrs. Ogilvie's paper, "Some Experiences in the Yukon," was illustrated by lantern slides showing the picturesque beauty of woods, flowers, mountains, trails and camps.

At the last meeting held on March 11th, Mme. de Salaberry read an account of Col. de Salaberry's part in the war of 1812, when at Chateauguay he won a victory over the enemy with a force one-tenth in size, by judicious arrangements and clever strategy. Mme. Roy also read a supplement to her paper on Castine, given last year, which supplement told of a donation to Bishop Walsh, of Portland, of a piece of land at Castine, on which to build a chapel to commemorate the founding in 1648 of this settlement by the Capuchin Fathers.

The Bytown Museum has had a most successful season, which opened in May and closed in November. Mms. Fauvel, Curator and her committee invited different members of the Society to take charge on Wednesdays and Saturdays from 3 to 6. There were 731 visitors, almost double the number of preceding year. Many valuable objects of historic interest have been added to the collection; these will be noted in the annual report of 1921. Several schools responded to the invitation of the Society, and sent relays of students to examine the various articles housed in the Museum.

The President, Mme. Roy, and Mrs. Billings were taken by Fire Chief Graham to visit the old Hudson's Bay store in Hull, now used as a dwelling. Snap shots were taken of the building, and one has been enlarged and will be framed for the Museum. Permission has been granted by the Quebec Board of Public Highways, to remove to the Museum, the mile stone on the Aylmer Road.

The thanks of the Society are hereby tendered to Miss Masson, Cataloguer of "Carnegie Library," and to Mrs. Wm. Ogilvie, and Miss Eva Read for cataloguing the contents of the Museum.

We are also indebted to Mr. Sykes, librarian of Ottawa Library for his courtesy for arranging that meetings are held in the Library.

Thanks are also due to Mr. Joynt for his great kindness in auditing the Society's books, and to the press for kindly notices throughout the year.

Resectfully submitted,

(Sgd.) C. A. GULLOCK,
Hon. Rec. Secy.

REPORT OF THE Corresponding Secretary, 1920-1921

A heading to a column of the Evening Journal for the 24th of this month reads as follows: "Peace, Perfect Peace!" and below are no less than eight despatches in black type, bringing news of war from eight different parts of this old world. To my mind it is a typical instance. We think of peace, we long for peace, we pray for peace. The din in our ears of discontent, the murmur of the unemployed millions, the strange state of our national finances, and the unending unrest everywhere—for it is only the silliest minds who go happily along the primrose path today—all have made their impress on us in the past year.

The tremendous depreciation of our monetary standard has left bitterness throughout the land. The greed of the great combines is forcing the people over the abyss of ruin, for, when life cannot be supported by wages, does it matter if the wages be high or low?

The world is sick and the overwhelming desire to allay the fever, to cast off the peevishness of convalescence and to become healthy and sane obsesses all classes and creeds. Surely such a will to do cannot but result in the doing—such a deep-rooted desire for peace cannot be dissipated by a few ill minds. We look back over the last seven years and we know that having borne with them, the future cannot daunt us with evil, but may bring great gifts for the good of all.

One of the very first communications as to be received by this Society was a request to assist the Great War Veterans to hold a Fair at Lansdowne Park.

The Programme of the Royal Society of Canada was received as usual. The Society met at the Victoria Memorial Museum and several of our Members attended different meetings of the various sections.

A letter was sent to the Canada Historical Review, enclosing our subscription to that Magazine for the year.

Literature relating to the publishing of a work on "Colonial Families in the United States" also came to hand in May.

Programmes and announcements dealing with the Ontario Historical Society were sent to us prior to the meeting held on the 10th and 11th of June at Owen Sound.

Various firms in the city were asked for proposals for the printing of the Annual Report. The lowest bidder was the Ottawa Printing Company at $2.70 per page, so they were awarded the contract.

Forms for application for membership in the Sons of the Revolution were forwarded to us from Los Angeles.

The correspondence begun with Major S. N. Gray, of Cornwall, with regard to an Historical Society in Cornwall, came to an abrupt ending when Mr. John Harkness intimated that they would let us know if it was desired to have our delegate attend future meetings of a Society already formed.

Harper Brothers requested the Society to forward them our Membership list for their Editorial files. This was complied with at once.

Mr. Chas. W. Jeffreys, of York Mills, Ontario, was interested enough by the reports forwarded to him in July to buy a set of Transactions in August.

Requests for odd numbers of both Reports and Transactions have been attended to as they came in, but in August an effusive note of thanks was received from Jules Tremblay, who had been presented with a full set during that month.

The grant from the Provincial Government for $200 was issued to us on the 2nd of September, 1920. On the preceding 13th of May your Secretary wrote to the Hon. R. H. Grant, Minister of Education for Ontario, setting forth the many reasons why our grant from the Provincial Treasury should be increased. On the 15th an answer was received stating that, as the estimates for the year had been tabled it was impossible for the current year. Some further correspondence followed and in October a request was forwarded asking for more favorable consideration in this year's estimates. The last letter received to date was written on the 9th of March, and states that the Minister has "much pleasure" in being able to arrange to comply with our request. The present Minister of Education has shown his interest in our work in other ways as well and although no date has yet been fixed that he has been able to meet, we are still hopeful that he may be able to address us personally in the near future.

After the Tea and Money shower held in October, letters were sent to Mrs. S. J. McLean, thanking her for her courtesy in granting us the use of her house for this charming affair and to Dr. Helen McMurchy who spoke so delightfully to us on that occasion.

Before the Museum was closed in the Autumn letters were sent to the Inspector of the Public Schools in the City, Dr. Putnam, to the Secretaries of the Separate School Boards, Mr. Carle and Mr. O'Farrell, to the Principals of the Ottawa Ladies College, Ashbury College, Carleton School, Rideau and Gloucester Street Convents, and the Sisters' School on Kent Street, asking that pupils be allowed to visit our Museum with their teachers. The Carleton School and Ottawa Ladies' College, were the only ones that, so far, accepted the invitation.

We feel, however, that the teachers will assist us when they understand how valuable the co-operative effort could be made.

The Historic Sites and Monuments Board of Canada has kept in touch with our organization during the year. One of the recommendations made to this Board by the Society was that it investigate and deal with the project to buy the Manor House at Montebello for a summer hotel. This matter came to our notice through a letter written by Mr. J. Moffatt Ross, who desired us to assist in preserving this old Landmark. The growth of the interest of the Dominion Board in our work resulted in a request for a set of our Transactions early in October.

Letters were exchanged with the Quebec Government regarding a milestone on the Aylmer Road dated 1820. Their approval of our moving the stone was secured but bad weather prevented us carrying out our plans in the Autumn.

A letter was sent to the Nova Scotia Historical Society in November calling their attention to an article in our newspapers detailing the removal of fossils from Parrsboro to Harvard University in Massachusetts. We are assured in reply that the matter would be taken up by them and the attention of the Institute of Natural Science drawn to it as well.

Finding considerable difficulty in completing our lists of men enlisting in Ottawa and their subsequent record during the Great War a request was preferred of the Department of Militia and Defence that they compile and forward us such a list for our Archives. The very courteous reply stated that, owing to the tremendous bulk of material they begged us to defer our request for at least a year, to remember we were only one of hundreds of organizations that would be served in due season.

The Hon. Mr. Justice Latchford was approached in December in order that a final date be fixed for his address before the Society. Some few letters were exchanged before he was able to arrange to come to Ottawa on the evening of Friday, February 4th. The next letter to Mr. Justice Latchford carried the request that he become an honorary member of our Society, as well as the gratitude of our members for his kindness in giving time and trouble to gather so much reliable material about the "Forgotten Pioneer." In thanking us for our Transactions he says "You cannot imagine how much delight I have had in reading again the older records of the Society."

The Conference of Historical Societies sent us a copy of their proceedings in December. They enclosed the usual questionnaire and request for financial assistance from all Historical Societies.

Miss Janet Carnochan's protest as to the wording of last year's report was received and she has expressed herself as satisfied by the explanation given and the sincere assurance of our Society that they have only the very highest opinion of her work and personality. That we one and all were glad to do her honour should go without saying.

A publication entitled the Parish Register of Kingston, 1785-1811, has been brought out by Professor Young, of Trinity College, Toronto. He has had some correspondence with us for the purpose of advertising this work which must have much interest for our members. The subscription for one number has been forwarded to Prof. Young.

The interest shown by Mr. Fred Cook in the Museum and our collection has continued warm and unabating, his help being given in more than one way during the year. The last letter your Secretary has written to him requested him to accept an honorary membership in the Society. His charming note of acceptance deserves to be quoted in full but space forbids.

The Local Council of Women in Ottawa chose Mrs. J. Lorn McDougall, as the Past President of the Historical Society, for one of their nominees on the Committee of One Hundred to discuss the subject of Town Planning. This Committee was formed by the Kiwanis Club of Ottawa.

A request was received on the 29th of January from Mr. F. W. Putnam, of Woodbury, N.J., U.S.A., for a copy of the address on the War, given by Sir Clifford Sifton before this Society.

Catalogues of sales of various collections of objets d'art, books, etc. have been received both from Europe and the United States of America.

One of our members, Miss Hamilton, has been ill for some time, and a note of sympathy has been sent her.

To those of our members who have lost loved ones during the year, Mrs. Rothwell, Mrs. Robert Brown, Mrs. Billings, and Miss Humphreys, we have also extended the sympathy of the Society.

As various donations have been deposited at the Museum the notes of thanks to the donors have been dispatched.

The usual acknowledgements of our Reports have come in, those from Sweden and England reaching us in good season.

Cards of thanks for the publications received in exchange have been sent out in the routine manner.

The Academic Royal, of Brussels, has sent us during the year various prize lists and interesting pamphlets. These reach us by way of the Department of State.

Several requests for information about the United Empire Loyalists of this district have been received from Canada and the United States of America.

Letters have been written where necessary to those from whom we hope to obtain papers for future use.

Mr. McLeod Stewart called the attention of the Society to the celebration to be held in Annapolis Royal in August. It is hoped at least one of our members will be there on those dates.

It was found necessary to send out formal requests for the originals of the papers read before this organization in order that the Printing Committee be enabled to start work.

Respectfully submitted,

ALBERTA T. SOMMERVILLE,

Hon. Cor. Sec.
